

Understanding Benefits & Work

ERI SERVICES

Answering your questions about working and your benefits.

ERI offers services for people with all types of disabilities who have questions about benefits and working.

ERI's Benefit Specialists will talk with you about your unique situation and answer your questions. We explain benefits programs so you can make informed choices about your work goals and opportunities.

Understand Your Benefits

A Benefits Specialist will meet with you to talk about, and verify your benefits, including:

- ✓ Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI)
- ✓ Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- ✓ Medical Assistance (MA) and Medicare
- ✓ Food Share, Energy, and Housing Assistance

Contact ERI when you are:

- ✓ Considering working for the first time.
- ✓ Thinking about earning more money.
- ✓ Re-entering the workforce.
- ✓ Developing a career plan.
- ✓ Actively seeking work.
- ✓ Having problems with your benefits.

We can help you

- Make informed choices about working.
- Avoid overpayments.
- Manage changes in your benefits.
- Understand how to use work incentives.
- Maintain healthcare coverage.

If your work or life situation changes, we help you understand your benefits so you can make informed choices.

To us, work is more than a job.

Work can improve health, stability, social connections, personal satisfaction, and of course, your wallet.

More About Us

We believe that every person with a disability will have the OPPORTUNITY to pursue and advance their work goals; the ABILITY to access healthcare to maintain a high quality of life; and the POTENTIAL to become financially independent.

“ERI’s benefits counseling services are about making informed choices about work, avoiding overpayments, managing changes in benefits, maintaining health coverage, and knowing how to use appropriate work incentives.”
