

Celebrate

Sen. Johnson

Rep. Stubbs

Rep. Moore Omokunde

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Health & Mental Health

WEEK THREE: FEBRUARY 15-19

COVID-19 Town Hall

Hosted by Sen. LaTonya Johnson, Rep. Shelia Stubbs, and Rep. Supreme Moore Omokunde
Monday, February 15 from 1:30 - 3:00PM ● Virtual Event

Join our panel of health care experts as they explore how racial health care disparities have impacted communities of color during COVID-19, as well as the importance of the COVID-19 vaccination. Register for the event at http://bit.ly/2YCK9w5

Mental Health: Roundtable

Hosted by Sen. LaTonya Johnson, Rep. Shelia Stubbs, and Rep. Supreme Moore Omokunde
Wednesday, February 17 from 1:30 - 3:00PM ● Virtual Event

Join our panel of mental health experts as they discuss the impacts of increased stress and mental health concerns within communities of color, as well as the increase in incidents of domestic violence and homicide during COVID-19. Register for the event at http://bit.ly/36Ayx1c

Rebalanced-Life Wellness Association

Hosted by Sen. LaTonya Johnson, Rep. Shelia Stubbs, and Rep. Supreme Moore Omokunde
Friday, February 19 from 12:00 - 1:00PM ● Virtual Event

Join our panel with Aaron Perry and the Rebalanced-Life Wellness Association, a group of experts, activists and leaders that are dedicated to promoting the health and wellbeing of Black Men in our community. We will be answering questions on how to better support and promote Black Men's wellness. Register for the event at http://bit.ly/36H5Q2G

Join the Wisconsin Legislative Black Caucus for Health & Mental Health Week. Register in advance to join the panelists virtual Q&A or stream the events live at: facebook.com/BlackCaucusWI (All events) or WisEye.org/live (Monday only).